E. James Jamoulis purchased the Cape Cod Café in 1947. He formulated a pizza recipe and worked day & Night to build up the business alternating between the bar and the kitchen. Bar pizza was not known by that name then; just pizza, but it was only in this area that pans were used. Ten inch was the only size pizza sold in Brockton.

In the late 70's Jim & Lynne took over the business and made Cape Cod Café what it is today. Now Jonathan and Jeremy Jamoulis carry on that tradition.

Through hard work and the mentality of never cutting corners, The Cape Cod Café has consistently managed to keep the pizza tasting the same as it did in 1950.

The Jamoulis family and all our employees are very proud and thankful.
